

We're Keeping the Light On

They may be missing but they will never be forgotten. Join family members of Israel's MIAs to keep the light on for Ehud Goldwasser, Eldad Regev and Gilad Shalit, kidnapped by terrorists more than a year ago, and for Israel's other missing soldiers.

Remember Israel's MIAs

Wednesday, November 21, 7:00 pm

Shaarei Shomayim Congregation

470 Glencairn Ave (just east of Bathurst)

- Meet and hear from the anguished immediate family members of Ehud Goldwasser and Eldad Regev
- Learn what you can do to spotlight the plight of Israel's MIA's and their families
- Become inspired by Toronto's Renanim student choir

This event is organized by UJA Federation of Greater Toronto, B'nai Brith Canada, Canada-Israel Committee and Canadian Jewish Congress Ontario Region.

*Sponsors include Aid to Disabled Veterans of Israel, Beit Halochem Canada; ARZA Canada; Association for The Soldiers of Israel (ASI); Bais Chaya Mushka; Beit Rayim Synagogue and School; Beth Torah Congregation; CJPAC (Canadian Jewish Political Affairs Committee); Canadian Associates of Ben-Gurion University; Canadian Council for Reform Judaism; Canadian Committee Office for the Haifa Foundation; Canadian Foundation for Masorti Judaism & Mercaz-Canada; Canadian Friends of Hebrew University; Canadian Friends of Herzog Hospital; Canadian Friends of Tel Aviv University; Canadian Zionist Cultural Association (CZCA); Centre for Jewish Knowledge and Heritage; Chabad Lubavitch of Markham; Congregation Darchei Noam; Downtown Jewish Community School; Hadassah-WIZO Toronto; Israeli Forum of Canada; Kehillat Shaarei Torah; Minyan Yachdav; Na'amat Canada, Toronto; Paul Penna Downtown Jewish Day School; REENA; Sar-El Canada; Schwartz / Reisman Centre; Shomrai Shabbos Chevra Mishnayos; The Toronto Heschel School; Ve'ahavta: The Canadian Jewish Humanitarian & Relief Committee

* This list is up-to-date as of press time. Additional organizations may be included next week.